Job Description
POSITION TITLE: Child Welfare Case Manager – Human Services Division of Social Services

DEPARTMENT: Social Services

RESPONSIBLE TO: Social Services Assistant Director

RATE OF PAY/CATEGORY: Program Staff D / ($22.22 - $33.93 per hr.)

STATUS/TERM: Full-time, Regular

JOB SUMMARY:
Position may provide a combination of intake, investigative and case management services. Under general supervision provides permanency guardianship and placement resources in cases of abuse, neglect, and exploitation. Determines the level of risk and takes appropriate action, or accepts cases from investigators and provides follow-up intervention, assessment, and case management. To conduct assessments and engage in planning, the child and adolescent case manager must have good skills in interviewing and documentation. In implementing functions associated with linking and referring children and families to service systems, the case manager will need to have skills in negotiating, collaborating and brokering. Advocacy is offered through the case manager's ability to communicate clearly on behalf of the child and family. Social Services emphasize the importance of distinguishing between and establishing linkages with those that are formal as well as informal helping systems. Formal service systems may include schools, mental health programs, child welfare agencies and health care organizations, while informal service systems are most often operated by volunteers. Informal services target gaps not filled by the formal system such as transportation, tutoring and social support.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Provide case management services to children in tribal and state custody as assigned.
2. Performs initial investigation of protective services referrals to determine the appropriateness of protective services intervention.
3. Supervises children in out-of-home placements and in-home interventions. Assists the parents or placement providers in meeting the needs of these children, where permanency planning is the goal.
4. Prepares home and/or custody evaluation as requested by other counties, states, or as ordered by the courts.
5. For confirmed cases of adult abuse/neglect, obtains client's permission to provide services, crisis intervention, case planning and ongoing services.
6. Initiates and pursues the legal process for guardianship when client is incapacitated or incompetent.
7. Responsible for insuring that children, youth and families gain access to needed community resources.
9. Provides case management which strengthens family functioning.
